

Your Care Management Participation Rights

- o The right of to have input into the case management plan
- o The right to refuse treatment or services, including case management services and the provision of information regarding any implications of such refusal relating to benefits eligibility and/or health outcomes
- o The use of end of life and advance care directives by the organization as applicable
- o The right to obtain information regarding the INETICARE's criteria for case closure
- o The right to receive notification and a rationale when case management services are terminated; and
- o The right to alternative approaches when you and/or your family is unable to fully participate in the assessment phase.